

CNC tests 2,000 drugs against the new coronavirus

The Center for Neuroscience and Cell Biology (CNC) at the University of Coimbra is testing about 2,000 drugs against covid-19, using a kind of replication of the new coronavirus.

So far, the CNC has tested 700 from a library of 2,000 drugs on the market to treat other diseases, having recorded "promising results" in more than a dozen, explains, Luís Pereira de Almeida, CNC President.
